Resolution on Restrictive Voting Laws

WHEREAS, the right to vote is fundamental, and protects and preserves all other civil and political freedoms; and

WHEREAS, the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, ratified in 1868, guarantees "equal protection of the laws" for all American citizens; the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution guarantees that "the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude;" the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution guarantees that "the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex;" and the Twenty-sixth Amendment to the Constitution guarantees that "the right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of age;" and

WHEREAS, President Johnson and the United States Congress ensured the passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, considered to be the most effective federal civil rights statute, and which prohibits voting practices or procedures that discriminate on the basis of race, color, or membership in a language minority group; and

WHEREAS, President Clinton and the Congress ensured the passage of the National Voter Registration Act in 1993, which enhances voting opportunities for every American by making it easier for citizens to register to vote and to maintain their registration; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States, writing through Chief Justice Earl Warren, has said "Undoubtedly, the right of suffrage is a fundamental matter in a free and democratic society. Especially since the right to exercise the franchise in a free and unimpaired manner is preservative of other basic civil and political rights;" and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has said "a State violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment whenever it makes the affluence of the voter or payment of any fee an electoral standard. Voter qualifications have no relation to wealth nor to paying this or any other tax;" and

WHEREAS, in 2011, legislators and governors across the country have reversed the trend of expansion of the franchise throughout the latter half of the last century by launching an unconscionable attack on the democratic values that set our nation apart, and which will restrict the right to vote for all Americans, and in particular minority, young, elderly, low-income, and disabled citizens; and

WHEREAS, the restrictive voting laws advanced in 2011 include requiring all voters to show a government issued photo ID in order to vote, mandating that all voters prove their citizenship at the time of registration, repealing Election Day Registration, introducing stringent regulations governing voter registration drives, and reducing the availability of early voting – which will impact all eligible voters and will disproportionately and negatively impact the political participation of African-Americans, Latinos, other racial and ethnic minorities, and young, elderly, low-income, and disabled voters; and

WHEREAS, photo ID laws erect an additional and unnecessary barrier to the voting booth, with significant associated expenses and difficulties that effectively prevent millions of eligible voters from casting their ballots; and

WHEREAS, the DNC's Voting Rights Institute's report, "The Real Cost of Photo ID Laws," demonstrates that implementing photo ID laws will cost taxpayers many tens of millions of dollars at a time when states are facing record budget deficits; and

WHEREAS, early voting laws have enabled millions of people to vote when they were able, unencumbered by the family and professional responsibilities that prevent many Americans from voting at the polls on Election Day, including more than 30 million people who voted before Election Day in 2008; and

WHEREAS, same day registration laws have made it easier for people to become voters on Election Day by eliminating arbitrary barriers to their full civic participation, including more than one million people who registered and voted on Election Day in 2008; and

WHEREAS, voter registration drives offer millions of Americans the opportunity to register and vote, and the League of Women Voters of Florida, an organization with a 70-year history of registering and educating voters, has already stopped its voter registration drive operations, explaining that it cannot comply with the stringent new voter registration drive regulations in that state; and

WHEREAS, there are more than 30 million Americans with disabilities of voting age, yet the Federal Election Commission reports that there are more than 20,000 inaccessible polling places and modernizing the system with automated registration, online access to records and accessible voting machines would allow more eligible Americans to vote; and

WHEREAS, Democratic legislators across the country courageously opposed these efforts to restrict the franchise, and helped protect the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, Governors John Lynch (New Hampshire.), Bev Perdue (North Carolina), Jay Nixon (Missouri), Brian Schweitzer (Montana), and Mark Dayton (Minnesota) all took a courageous stand to defend Americans' right to vote by vetoing photo ID bills and other regressive legislation;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee affirms our commitment to increasing participation in the electoral process and to ensuring that all eligible Americans are able to participate in open and fair elections; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee will continue to fight with leaders across the country to stop the manipulation of Americans' constitutional rights for partisan gain; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Democratic National Committee calls on legislators, Governors, Secretaries of State, and elections officials across the country to advance measures that will protect the right of all eligible citizens to vote; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee calls on state election officials to educate the public about the effect of new restrictive voting laws, and to do everything in their power to ensure that all eligible citizens who want to vote are able to do so and to have their vote counted.

WHEREAS, the King Memorial was built on the United States National Mall, situated between Memorials for the authors of the Emancipation Proclamation and the Declaration of Independence, Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Jefferson, and located at 1964 Independence Avenue, an address that commemorates the instrumental role that Dr. King's moral leadership and relentless efforts played in the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee honors the unveiling of the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Memorial; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee commends all the individuals who led the effort to design and build a National Memorial to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the countless Americans who contributed to this effort; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee calls on all of us to mold our commitment to Civil, Voting, and Human Rights in Dr. King's example, and to endeavor to make our daily work a living memorial to his life and legacy.

Resolution on the Republican Party Turning Its Back on Middle Class Americans

WHEREAS, the Republican Party has repeatedly put the interests of corporations and special interests ahead of middle class Americans and working families; and

WHEREAS, the Republican Party has refused to support a balanced approach to deficit reduction and would rather shift the burden onto the backs of seniors citizens and middle class Americans through cuts to Medicare and Social Security; and

WHEREAS, the Republicans have repeatedly fought for tax cuts for the wealthiest Americans and corporations, but not assistance to Americans who are looking for work; and

WHEREAS, now when given the opportunity Republicans are actually looking to raise taxes on 160 million middle class Americans;

WHEREAS, the Republican Party has continually spoken out against the President's efforts to help the economy, yet used Recovery Act funds to benefit their districts and states; and

WHEREAS, the Republican Party, since taking over leadership in the House of Representatives, has offered not one single bill that will help spur job growth; and

WHEREAS, the Republican Party and its presidential candidates has offered no new ideas to help Americans get back to work, instead promoting the same tired policies that lead our country into the worst recession since the Great Depression, including cutting taxes for the wealthiest Americans and deregulating Wall Street;

WHEREAS, Republican presidential candidates are campaigning on the repeal of Wall Street reform, which protects working Americans from having to foot the bill for Wall Street bankers' risky bets and makes sure consumers are no longer subject to the shady practices of predatory lenders.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee calls on Republicans to put politics aside, abandon their out-of-touch positions, and start working with President Obama in any meaningful way to help the economy recover; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Democratic National Committee will continue supporting President Obama and his efforts to help spur economic growth, protect the middle class, and make sure America wins the future.

Resolution to Urge Congress to Provide the Residents of the District of Columbia with Full Democracy

WHEREAS, the U.S. Constitution that was ratified in 1788, provided the right to vote for representation in Congress to the "People living" in the several states of the United States, and included citizens of the several States as well as those living on the land that would later be designated by the federal government for the nation's capital as ceded by Maryland and Virginia to become the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS, through the enactment of the "District of Columbia Organic Act of 1801" DC residents were disenfranchised from voting for representative Members of Congress for 210 years; and

WHEREAS, DC residents pay among the highest per capita federal taxes in the nation and more than 200,000 residents have served in the federal armed services, and yet DC residents have no vote in the US Congress; and

WHEREAS, no other nation in the world denies the right of self-government, including participation in its national legislature, to the residents of its capital; and

WHEREAS, the residents of the District of Columbia lack full democracy, equality, and citizenship enjoyed by the residents of the 50 states; and

WHEREAS, the Democratic National Committee passed the "Resolution in Support of the District of Columbia Fair and Equal Voting Rights Act" in 2007 and the "Resolution in Support of the District of Columbia House Voting Rights" in 2009; and

WHEREAS, the new House majority began the 112th Congress by stripping DC Delegate Eleanor Holmes Norton of a vote in the Committee of the Whole, and implementing new legislation trampling on DC Home Rule including the introduction of a bill to bar DC funds for abortions for DC residents, and overriding a Congressional and local compromise on private school vouchers for DC; and

WHEREAS, on January 12, 2011 DC Delegate Norton introduced three bills on attaining self-governance for the District of Columbia: the New Columbia Admission Act providing for statehood for DC, the DC Equal Representation Act allowing DC both House and Senate seats, and the DC House Voting Rights Act providing DC a House vote; and

WHEREAS, on January 19, 2011 DC Delegate Norton introduced the DC Budget Autonomy Act of 2011 to allow the DC budget of local taxpayer-raised funds to become law without Congressional approval, recognizing that while the District of Columbia has timely passed a balanced budget for each of the last 16 years, the District of Columbia has faced the possibility of being shut-down each year because of Congressional deliberations over the federal budget and the imposition of riders opposed by the District of Columbia; and

WHEREAS, the residents of the District of Columbia have endorsed statehood for the District of Columbia, and have been pressing for Congressional voting rights and budget autonomy,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Democratic National Committee endorse and encourage citizens and their members of Congress to support full democracy and statehood for the District of Columbia that will guarantee to the residents of the District of Columbia full Congressional voting representation, budget autonomy, and all of the rights that the people of the 50 United States enjoy.

A Resolution Urging the U.S. Congress to Transfer a Share of the Revenues Derived from the Excise Taxes and Duties Imposed on Petroleum Products Shipped from the Virgin Islands to the United States

WHEREAS, the U.S. Virgin Islands, consisting of the islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix, and St. John and adjacent cays, came under sovereignty of the United states in the year 1917, and are home to over one hundred ten thousand U.S. citizens, who have made nearly a century of invaluable contributions to the rich tapestry of American cultural and social activity; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Virgin Islands' economy has long depended upon tourism and commerce and upon selected industrial activities; and

WHEREAS, the major industrial operation in the Virgin Islands is HOVENSA, L.L.C. (formerly Hess Oil Virgin Islands Corporation) located on the island of St. Croix, the second largest petroleum refinery in the western hemisphere, with a capacity to process a half a million barrels of crude oil per day and ship over five billion dollars worth of refined petroleum products yearly to the rest of the United States, generating revenues to the U.S. Treasury from excise taxes, licenses and other duties on petroleum products shipped to the mainland United States; and

WHEREAS, VIWAPA, the Territory's local and exclusive public power utility, is wholly dependent on fossil fuel oil to generate power for all residents, businesses, and government; and

WHEREAS, the Caribbean is blessed with abundant wind, solar, and geothermal resources that can allow islands in the region to generate clean energy using indigenous sources; and

WHEREAS, until recently HOVENSA refined about 500,000 barrels of crude oil per month or 2.4 million barrels of fuel per year for the operations of its electric and water systems; the purchases have remained consistent over the past nine years as a cost of about 236,000,000 to 240,000,000 to the rate payers and at the expense of a receding and depressed economy; and

WHEREAS, VIWAPA is an essential component of the Territory's growth and development, the resident's well being, cost of living, health and economy, it is essential that VIWAPA provide reasonable rates and reliable electric and water services; and

WHEREAS, because VIWAPA is forced to operate inefficiently as it had no connection to a grid system, depends solely on fossil fuel which has increased the Virgin Islands' average price per kilowatt hour of electricity to 31 cents today; and

WHEREAS, significant financial resources are required to fund a Puerto Rico/Virgin Islands shared initiative on a grid system that reduces the cost of electric power to both the Territorial entities and would clean up the shorelines and restore the aquifer and water tables and to address environmental concerns for St. Croix and the rest of the Territory and interconnection could help improve grid stability and resilience in the event of a hurricane or other natural disaster; and

WHEREAS, historically, federal law provided that goods shipped from the Virgin Islands to the United states were and are to be subject to excise taxes and duties, while allowing the Virgin Islands Treasury to recover a portion of these funds, pursuant to Section 28 of the Virgin Islands Revised Organic Act of 1954, and Section 7652 (b) of title 26 of the U.S. code (providing for excise taxes on articles shipped from the Virgin Islands to the United Sates and specifying that a part of such amount collected transferred to the Virgin Islands based on matching formula); and

WHEREAS, the relevant law has consistently been interpreted by federal authorities as referring primarily to distilled spirits and not extending to refined petroleum products; and

WHEREAS, the procedure used for the recovery of distilled spirits taxes provides a model that would enable the U.S. Virgin Islands to benefit, at least in part, from the revenues generated from the existing excise taxes, licenses, and duties on refined petroleum products shipped to the United States, which would have no effect on the business cost s of HOVENSA and its stateside customers; and

WHEREAS, a congressional funded study recently determined the technical feasibility of interconnecting the islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix, and St. John to Puerto Rico's larger electric grid system; and

WHEREAS, the United states Energy and State Departments have supported creating a larger Caribbean energy grid that will interconnect all jurisdictions in the Caribbean reducing their dependency on foreign oil and increasing the viability of renewable energy sources; and

WHEREAS, Secretary of Energy Steven Chu and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton acknowledged the potential benefits of an eventual Caribbean-wide electricity grid in their remarks at the 2010 Energy and Climate Partnership of the Americas Ministerial; and

WHEREAS, the Democratic National Committee and through the Democratic Party Credo espouses "to encourage commerce, to educate children, to promote equal opportunity, to advance science and industry, to support art and industry, to support the arts and humanities, to restore the land, to develop and conserve our human and natural resources, to preserve and enhance our built environment..."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Democratic National Committee supports the effort of the USVI leaders to petition the United States Congress and the President of the United States to allocate a portion of the Federal Gasoline Excise Tax to be returned to the Territory to address the reduction in energy costs, health and environmental concerns, establish an energy grid system with the islands of Puerto Rico, St. Thomas. St. Croix, and St. John and access renewal geothermal energy in the neighboring islands of Nevis and St. Kitts to offer energy relief from fossil fuel dependency and to provide the Territory with a more stable and reliable energy system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the DNC urges the support and favorable recommendation from the U. S. Secretary to the Congress of the United States for the perpetual transfer of a portion of revenues derived from excise taxes and duties imposed on petroleum products shipped from the Virgin Islands to the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution shall be forwarded to the President of the United States, the members of the House of Representatives and the members of the United States Senate for the member states and territories of the Democratic National Committee.
